

“Deep in the Trenches: Protecting Country”

BACKGROUND

PROUD RACE is an exciting initiative which enables schools to record and celebrate the stories of Indigenous Australians on life-size bollards which will be exhibited in our community at key celebrations this year and in the future. They will also provide an opportunity for our students to be involved in the Memorial Service for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander service people at the Shrine during Reconciliation Week.

The National PROUD RACE campaign is initiated and supported by the Aboriginal Catholic Ministry for Victoria and supported by Reconciliation Victoria.

A Proud Race empowers communities to participate in keeping alive the spirit of the “I Feel Proud Today” campaign, held in February this year, to commemorate the National Apology delivered by former Prime Minister of Australia, Mr Kevin Rudd in February 2008.

“I encourage all schools to participate in this Project to ensure that the Apology and all that it requires of us becomes and remains an integral part of our shared story. It is vital that this significant date is central to our children’s understanding of our history and the story of our Country’s First Peoples,” said Ms Vicki Clark, Coordinator of Aboriginal Catholic Ministry Victoria.

We remember that on the 13th of February 2008 the Prime Minister of Australia, Kevin Rudd, said “Sorry” for the wrongs that have been inflicted on a proud race of people and a proud culture.

“... today we honour the Indigenous peoples of this land, the oldest continuing cultures in human history.

We reflect on their past mistreatment.

We apologise for the laws and policies of successive Parliaments and governments that have inflicted profound grief, suffering and loss on these our fellow Australians.

And for the indignity and degradation thus inflicted on a proud people and a proud culture, we say sorry.”
(The Honorable Kevin Rudd, 13 February 2008)

February 2012 over 4,000 joined together across Australia to celebrated “I Feel Proud Today” as a way of commemorating that moment.

A Proud Race is a continuation of this commemoration and offers a way to actively participate in keeping alive the Spirit of that moment.

“A future based on mutual respect, mutual resolve and mutual responsibility. A future where all Australians, whatever their origins, are truly equal partners, with equal opportunities and with an equal stake in shaping the next chapter in the history of this great country, Australia.”

(The Honorable Kevin Rudd, 13 February 2008)

This year the project will be called: “Deep in the Trenches: Protecting Country”. The project will commemorate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander ANZACS as part of the ANZAC Centenary in 2014.

Proud Race Deep in the Trenches Protecting Country Lenten Activity Prayer.

Opening Prayer

Acknowledgement: In the spirit of reconciliation, and in this time of Lent when we prepare for our Christian ceremonies, we acknowledge that we are meeting on the land for which the (the name of the traditional owners) people and their ancestors have been custodians for many centuries, and on which they have performed age old ceremonies. May we work with respect on this day, focusing on building a just, unified and cohesive nation.

A Prayer for Remembrance

Leader: God of all time

Today we gather to honour and remember the part played by the Aboriginal people and the Torres Strait Islanders in the wars for our nation.

We pause awhile:

Response All: We remember and honour them

Leader: May we as a nation come to fully acknowledge the contribution that the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders have made to the defence of this land.

We honour those that served in the Navy, Army and the Air Force.

We honour those who though not in uniform used their skills and experience in the war efforts.

We remember those who gave their lives and are lost from us.

We remember those whose lives were never the same.

We pause awhile:

Response All: We remember and honour them.

Leader: God of the Dreamtime, God of Today,
Help us never to forget.

As the people of Australia become aware of the contribution of the Aboriginal people and the Torres Strait Islanders to the defence of Australia

May they be remembered with dignity and pride.

We pause awhile:

Response All: We remember and honour them.

AMEN

Based on a prayer was read by Chaplain Royce Thompson (RAAF - Air Commodore) on Tuesday 6th July, 1999 at the Aboriginal War Memorial, Campbell A.C.T.

FINAL PRAYER at the conclusion of the activity

Leader: Lord, we give thanks for the soldiers whose stories we have discovered today. We give thanks to the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander men and women who willingly left their land and their people to defend their country.

They faced resistance with patience and wisdom.

They faced prejudice with tolerance and gentleness

They faced the enemy with courage and skill.

Lord, we give thanks for the soldiers whose stories we have discovered today.

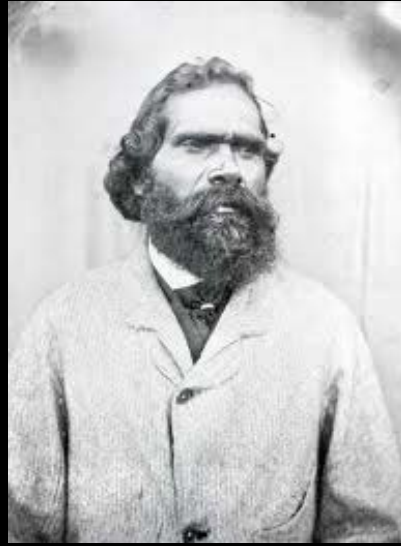

*ALL: They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.*

1. Go to the room you are going to work in with your supervising teacher where she/he will give you “your person”.
 2. Work in your groups to create a plan for your bollard
 3. Have the bollard checked by your teacher
 4. Produce the sheets / images that you need
 5. Two members of each group go to collect newspapers and glue
 6. Put all of your materials on your bollard
 7. Your group leader takes your bollard to the Art Rooms to dry
- HAVE FUN!

HOW TO BEGIN

1. In SILENCE everyone in the room will spend 15 minutes reading the information in their pack.
2. You then work with your group to LIST the facts you have found out about your person
3. You then look for KEYWORDS that would give another person an understanding of the person you are researching
4. You then think of what SYMBOLS might help to give an insight into the person's life.
5. You then plan the LAYOUT of your bollard

DEEP IN THE TRENCHES PROTECTING COUNTRY

ANZAC DAY SERVICE

Opening Song Can be downloaded click on the link

<http://ardenandbradymusic.weebly.com/music.html>

Acknowledgement of the Land: In the spirit of reconciliation, and in this time of Lent when we prepare for the Easter story of loving sacrifice, we acknowledge that we are meeting on the land for which the (the name of the traditional owners) people fought and died.

Reader: Thousands of Australians have travelled to foreign lands so that on ANZAC Day they can be where Australians have fought courageously and died selflessly. Amongst them were hundreds of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. We do not know the exact number who fought because at the time of all wars preceding the Vietnam War, Australia's First Nations were not recognised. Even though they faced discrimination at home and had to use deception to join the services, they went and fought with great distinction. Today we gather to remember all who have served our nation in times of conflict but we focus, in particular on this the 100th anniversary of the start of World War I, on those who have not yet been recognised for their contribution - today we give thanks for our ANZACs and, in particular, the ANZACs who are proud Aboriginal people.

Leader: In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit

All: AMEN

Opening Prayer:

God of love and liberty, we give thanks this day for the peace and security we enjoy, which was won for us through the courage and devotion of those who gave their lives in time of war. We pray that their labour and sacrifice may not be in vain, but that their spirit may live on in us and in generations to come. That the liberty, truth and justice which they sought to preserve may be seen and known in all the nations upon earth. This we pray in the name of the one who gave his life for the sake of the world, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Procession of the Bollards:

As students slowly process in with bollards, a short biography of each Aboriginal soldier is read. Clap sticks are used to mark the entry of each bollard. The bollards are placed at the front in a broad circle around a table on which has been put a large terracotta (or other fire proof bowl) bowl with sand in it. Fill the bottom of the bowl with sand then place a large wad of cotton wool sprinkled with salt then soak with metho.

Prayers of Intercession:

Lord of Peace, we who are gathered here think of those who went out to the battlefields of the First World War, Second World War, Korea, Malaya and Vietnam, Iraq and Afghanistan never to return. Grant to them eternal rest. Lord, Hear Us.

All: Lord, hear our prayer

Lord of Peace, we give thanks for those who not only fought our nations enemies, but the enemy of discrimination. May this fight be one all Australians participate in so that our own nation can be a nation of peace and justice. Lord, Hear Us

All: Lord hear our prayer

Lord of Peace, we remember today those who are peacekeepers and work with war torn communities to bring stability to the lives of many. Lord Hear Us.

All: Lord, hear our prayer

Lord of Peace, we pray for the families of those who still grieve the loss of their sons and daughters; their brothers and sisters. May they find comfort as our nation joins with them in remembering. Lord, Hear Us.

All: Lord, hear our Prayer

Lord of Peace, we pray for the men and women who serve in Australia's armed forces today. Please keep them safe; please help them to protect life; please give them the strength to fight ethically. Lord, Hear Us

All: Lord, hear our prayer

Lord of Peace, we pray for the peace of the world. We especially commend to your mercy the homeless and refugees We pray for the situation in Afghanistan, Syria and Sudan. Grant that the sane and selfless leadership may prevail in these places, and wherever there is warfare. Lord, Hear Us

All: Lord hear our prayer

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we remember with thanksgiving those who made the supreme sacrifice for us in time or war. We pray that the offering of their lives may not have been in vain. May your grace enable us this day to dedicate ourselves to the cause of justice, freedom and peace; and give us the wisdom and strength to build a better world, for the honour and glory of your Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

Reflection of the Significance of Fire in Remembering and the lighting of the fire

Throughout history ancient peoples have used fire as a symbol of remembrance. In the Temple in Jerusalem there burned a constant flame to remember the relationship between God and God's people. Throughout the world today there burn eternal flames that recognise the loving sacrifice of those who demonstrated the greatest of all loves, they "laid down their lives for a friend". Today we light this flame as the last post plays. In this time we ask that you reflect in silence on the power of love to transform the hearts of people and so bring peace to the world.

Silence

Blessing on the community:

*They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.*

*They mingle not with their laughing comrades again,
They sit no more at familiar tables of home,
As the stars shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain,
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness,
To the end, to the end, they remain.*

*They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.*

Leader: Go out into the world in peace. Be brave; keep hold of what is good. Never pay back wrong for wrong; encourage the faint hearted; support the weak and distressed; give due honour to everyone. Fight discrimination and stand up for those who are oppressed. Be always joyful and give thanks whatever happens for this is what God wills for you. I ask this in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen
